SME-to-LEAD is a European Commission supported initiative aiming at helping Small and Medium size Enterprises (SMEs) to be successful FP project coordinators.

The SME-to-LEAD training is designed to be taken sequentially, each training module addressing certain aspects of project coordination. For each module you will be presented with the relevant up-to-date information on current issues; each event will also act as a forum for the exchange of best practice ideas. You will decide on the modules to attend according to your previous experiences and future participation plans.

There are 2 modules of training that can be accessed together or one by one:

- Module 1 – From FP7 Proposal Preparation to Contract Negotiation
- Module 2 - FP7 Project Launch to Mid-term Assessment

Previous training sessions have been held in: Brussels (Belgium); Lisbon (Portugal); Aalborg (Denmark); Lefkosia (Cyprus); Riga (Latvia); Győr (Hungary); Copenhagen (Denmark); Porto (Portugal); Athens (Greece); Moscow (Russia), Budapest (Hungary) and Riga (Latvia).

Over 80% of the participants attending the sessions were SMEs. The feedback was very positive and statistics analyzed to date, give a first-class average of 90% of attendees marking the training as good or excellent! Sergio Pinto from Frontwave - Engenharia e Consultadoria, S.A., participating at the Lisbon training, said: "The trainers are brilliant. I emphasize their professionalism, enthusiasm and knowledge.
